Educational Opportunities

The Annual Media Conference provides the ability for industry professionals to maximize the media/credit relationship. The educational sessions offered will help you gain a clear picture of the dynamic relationship between the media and credit industries and show you how to take advantage of that relationship.

Networking Opportunities

Meal, break times, and the exhibitor hall atmosphere provide excellent opportunities to build relationships in a friendly and professional setting. This year's evening networking reception also invites additional members of the Federation of Credit and Financial Professionals to attend and network with conference attendees.

The Exhibitor Hall

The exhibitor hall allows you to learn about and compare the products and services first-hand from the exhibitors. Visiting our exhibitor hall allows you to take what you learn in educational sessions and determine what the best solution is for you and your company.
